(Song ENDS 2nd time through)

Second time through:

VERSE 1

Bright and golden morning molten. Growing light of the dawn.
Morning breaking, body aching. My clothes ragged and torn.

BRIDGE 1

VERSE 2

New light still dim. People all within. Look for a new place to stay.
Living ain't no fun while you're on the run.
My friends are all far away.

VERSE 3

Inverse reality just things black and white.
Never see color when you live at night.
Found in the morning a new place to hide.
During each daytime I'm safely inside.

VERSE 4

Living this way my night is day. Living this way my night is day.
Living this way my night is day. Living this way my night is day.
